NEW BUSINESS

Item A — Camai Festival Organization requests donation of amount of taxes collected on admissions and concessions sold

Linda Curda, Camai Festival organizer, reviewed what the Camai Festival is and what it represents for the community. She said she would like to talk to Council in the near future about becoming a sponsor next year.

Ms. Curda explained the donation the Bethel Council on the Arts received during last year's Camai Festival from the City and asked if Council would again donate the amount of taxes collected on admissions and concessions sold during the Camai 2001 Festival. Ms. Curda explained the donation is greatly needed and would be greatly appreciated.

City Manager Herron supported the donation, but recommended Council require a tax report to substantiate the amount of the donation.

Ms. Curda said the Bethel Council on the Arts treasurer would keep a detailed tax record to turn in to the City. She also asked for logistical help with moving tables and chairs, and possibly loaning tables and chairs to the organization. Council referred Ms. Curda to the city manager for logistical help.

Council member O'Brien said this type of donation worked well last year. Council agreed.
