RESOLUTION #95-29

A RESOLUTION OF THE BETHEL CITY COUNCIL COMMENDING THEODORA WINTERSTEEN FOR HER SERVICE AS LIBRARIAN AT THE KUSKOKWIM CONSORTIUM LIBRARY

WHEREAS, Theodora (Teddy) Wintersteen was hired as the first professional librarian for the Kuskokwim Consortium Library in 1974; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Wintersteen has improved the services the library offers while maintaining a relaxed and informal atmosphere conducive to learning; and

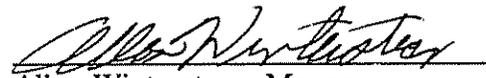

WHEREAS, Mrs. Wintersteen has faced many challenges throughout her career with the library, including keeping pace with research technology while managing limited resources, maintaining current and relevant reading collections, and providing knowledgeable support for patrons; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Wintersteen was instrumental in facilitating the move of the library to its current home in the Cultural Center; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Wintersteen is retiring as Head Librarian this month, and will be missed by staff and patrons alike.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Bethel City Council commends Theodora Wintersteen for her service to the citizens of Bethel in her efforts as Head Librarian of the Kuskokwim Consortium Library to educate, enlighten and entertain through the magic of books and ideas.

PASSED AND APPROVED THIS 23RD DAY OF MAY, 1995.

Allan Wintersteen, Mayor

ATTEST:

Connie Tucker, City Clerk
