APPENDIX E - CITIZEN PARTICIPATION PLAN ASSURANCE

The Citizen Participation Plan Assurance certifies compliance with this federal requirement. It states that adequate opportunity for meaningful public involvement has been afforded to citizens, especially low and moderate-income residents. In the case of Co-Applicants or Joint Applicants, each entity must comply with this federal requirement.

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION PLAN ASSURANCE OF COMPLIANCE

CDBG-REDI Grant applicants must provide citizens, especially low and moderate-income residents, adequate opportunity for meaningful involvement in planning and development of CDBG-REDI applications. The Citizen Participation Plan, per U.S. Statute 570.301(a)(2), requires that:

1. The applicant must hold at least one public hearing, not more than three (3) months prior to the original submission date of the application. The purpose of the public hearing is to give citizens and potential beneficiaries of the proposed project adequate opportunity to review and comment on the community's CDBG-REDI application, before it is submitted. The issues which should be considered include the proposed project location, activities, budget (including the estimated amount proposed to be used for activities that will benefit low- and moderate-income families), any costs to be imposed on residents as a result of the project (particularly those of low- and moderate-income), and, if appropriate, the plans of the applicant for minimizing displacement of persons as a result of activities funded with CDBG-REDI funds;
2. A record of the required hearings must be submitted with the application for CDBG-REDI funds, along with copies of the public notices for the hearings or affidavits of publication for the notices. A verbatim record is not necessary; the names of persons who attended and a summary of comments by local officials and citizens or a tape of the proceedings, is sufficient;
3. Technical assistance must be provided to persons who request assistance in developing or understanding proposals presented;

4. When requested and practicable, written response to written complaints and grievances regarding proposals must be given; and
5. When a significant number of non-English speaking residents are expected to participate, they must be assisted in understanding the public hearing proceedings.

I, _____, _____, of _____ do hereby certify compliance with the provisions of the Citizen Participation Plan outlined above:
